

BIO – DATA
LT COL MANISHA DABAS, VICE PRINCIPAL, SAINIK SCHOOL SATARA

Lt Col Manisha Dabas is an alumna of Officers Training Academy, Chennai and commissioned on 22 Sep 2007 in Army Education Corps. Currently she is serving as Vice Principal, Sainik School Satara and assumed the office on 02 May 2022.

She completed her schooling from a boarding school, MNSS, Rai (Haryana) and is a national level Swimmer. She is a Post-Graduate in English Literature from Maharishi Dayanand University, Rohtak (Haryana).

The Officer has been the Instructor at the prestigious National Defence Academy (NDA) Khadakwasla and Indian Military Academy (IMA) Dehradun.

Lt Col Manisha Dabas has also been in various staff appointments in Kashmir Sector, Pathankot and Jodhpur.

She is an Arabic Qualified and has done assignments as Arabic Interpreter with Arab Nations Officials. During her career, she has been awarded the “General Officer Commanding-in-Chief’s” Commendation Card on 15 Aug 2021 for her meritorious service.

Lt Col Manisha Dabas is happily married to Lt Col Ravinder Rana who is presently posted at Ladakh and is blessed with two lovely children, cadet Devangi in class VIII at Sainik School Satara and Master Devank Rana in class IV at Podar International School, Satara.

Jai Hind!